HOW IT WORKS

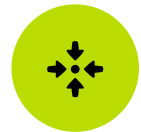

Agencies can't always pay on time and we're here to change that. FastPay Network helps media suppliers gain more control over the AR process. With our media expertise and close agency relationships, FastPay guarantees agency payments within a shorter time. FastPay Network payments post directly to your company's bank account, accompanied by detailed remittance data formatted to your preferred accounting system. Faster payment, better data, and greater visibility make your accounts receivable more predictable.
