

THE ONLY PAYMENT SOLUTION DESIGNED EXCLUSIVELY FOR MEDIA

The media world is changing every day. Agencies face intense pressure to both increase revenue and improve client satisfaction. As part of the FastPay Network, ePay offers agencies the opportunity to meet exceeding demands with a more modern and automated platform. How does ePay do it?

Proprietary technology developed to reach the maximum number of suppliers

Payment methods optimized to include virtual credit card, the FastPay Network, check, and ACH

Follow-up on payments to save time and effort, and ensure invoices are paid

Dedicated media payments team to provide support and ongoing supplier activations

Integrations with Mediaocean, Advantage, Quickbooks, and more

“By automating and streamlining our payment operations with FastPay ePay, we have made that process better, faster, and easier. That is a great thing. FastPay ePay was the best fit for our business because it offered greater flexibility than our existing solution and was developed to meet the specific needs of our industry.”

— Mike Babel, Senior Vice President & Director of Finance, Swanson Russell
