

FastPay ePay

The only payment solution designed exclusively for media

Media agencies face intense pressure to increase revenue and client satisfaction while reducing costs. One area that has been slow to move to a more modern and automated approach is media payments. Many media suppliers accept and process various forms of electronic payments because of the improved efficiencies and richer payment data they offer. The media world is changing everyday – FastPay ePay makes sure your payments are keeping up.

Proprietary technology developed to reach the maximum number of suppliers

Payment methods optimized include virtual credit card, FastPay Network, check, and ACH

Follow-up on payments saves time and effort, and ensures invoices are paid

Integrations with Mediaocean, Advantage, Quickbooks, and more

Dedicated media payments team provides support and ongoing supplier activations

“By automating and streamlining our payment operations with FastPay ePay, we have made that process better, faster, and easier. That is a great thing. FastPay ePay was the best fit for our business because it offered greater flexibility than our existing solution and was developed to meet the specific needs of our industry.”

Mike Babel, Senior Vice President & Director of Finance, Swanson Russell
